How the Editor is Imposed Upon.

The average editor of a country newspaper is meek and lowly and of long suffering, but there are times when he feels like rising up in his might and speaking right out, and right at the present time is when the editor of the NEWS wants to deliver a little sermon and do a little moralizing. It seems to be the general impression, and more especially among the ladies who arrange for entertainments for lifting church abbas, building public institutions, and other things of that nature, that the editor should devote a large part of his paper to advertising their entertainments, etc., and not receive or expect any pay.

It has really gotten to be the case that without even requesting it as a favor they will send in long articles, oftentimes a half column in length, and expect to see it in the next issue of the paper. The News remembers of several instances where it has given not less than twenty-five dollars worth of free advertising to some attraction of this kind and the only pay it received was a couple of "complimentary" tickets, and those given in such a manner as to carry with it the idea that a great favor was being bestowed. We have yet to experience the pleasant sensation of being thanked for the free use of our columns. This may do for a while, but to use a slang expression, there is such a thing as "riding a free horse to death," and while the News is willing to do almost anything in its power to advance the interests of Paris, or any public institution within its borders, it has about reached the point where it will put a gauge on the amount of free advertising it will give in the future.

There are bills to be paid with unceasing regularity, and it takes the cold cash to pay for them. The News does not wish to appear hogtied or mean, but must protect its interests and those of its subscribers, who do not want to see the paper filled up with long criticisms of something in which very often they have little or no interest. We have no objections to publishing brief and to the point notices of entertainments, etc., but must request that in the future a little judgment be used by those who hand them in.

Mercy! What a beautiful stock of wall paper Hinton has got. I'm glad you told me about it.

Dedication of Christian Church.

About one hundred Parisians went to Cynthiana Sunday morning on a special train to be present at the dedication ceremonies of the new Christian Church in that city. The services were conducted by the Rev. J. H. Haley, pastor, assisted by Elder Z. T. Sweeney.

The church, which is situated on one of the most desirable sites in the city, is built on solid yet simple lines, and cost in the neighborhood of $34,000. The style embraces Doric combined with the more graceful Corinthian, each worked in so harmoniously that the beauties of each style are shown to advantage.

The building is constructed of white limestone trimmed with Kentucky blue sandstone. It is provided with all modern conveniences, which include a women's parlor and the cloak room, dressing rooms, kitchens and toilet rooms in the basement, with a dining room forty by forty feet, with china and sewing room occupies the main room under the Sunday school room. A large crowd was present to witness the dedication. The following is the order of exercises:

A Slick Rascal.

On Carnival Day a man giving the name of Baldwin was arrested charged with picking pockets. There not being evidence strong enough to hold him he was discharged, but was rearrested on a charge of disorderly conduct and fined. He endeavored to pawn a handsome diamond ring in order to pay his fine, but was unsuccessful. A friend from Lexington finally came down and paid the fine and he was released.

On his return to Lexington Friday he was arrested by the authorities there charged with stealing the ring from a local jewelry store. On Sunday morning Judge Webb went to Lexington and identified him as being the party who was arrested here. In all probability he will get a term in the penitentiary.

When You Drink Beer Drink the Best.

D. D. Connors, landlord of the Hotel Fordham, has secured the agency for the finest beer made, one that has stood the test of time, and taken premiums at all the great exhibitions for its excellence of flavor and quality. It is the world renowned Annheuser-Busch beer of St. Louis. As a tonic for the sick or those convalescing it has no equal. As a beverage it is fit for the gods. If you will try a case of it you could not be persuaded to ever use any other kind. Telephone to Mr. Connors and have him send you up a case.

Nothing Small About the A. O. U. W's.

The Maysville Ledger of yesterday said: "During a recent Carnival by the A. O. U. W. at Paris, the Masons and Odd Fellows and K. P's, the Elks, the 'Ginians,' and even the Firemen and Police, vied with each other in an effort to put the big pot in the little one—in other words, to show the greatest fraternal feeling. Some of the 'exclusive' and eminent Mossbacks of Maysville would do well to pattern after their Paris brethren."

The Passion Play.

At the Catholic Church to-morrow and Thursday night will be presented the celebrated Passion Play of Oberammergau, with additional graphic scenes from the life of Christ by the aid of the Edison Marvelous Projectoscope, producing over one mile of moving pictures. This is not a series of mere paintings or photographs, but a succession of scenes in which all the characters move as in life, with all their various groupings, attitudes, gestures—everything except the human voice. As the scenes are displayed the lecturer explains in a clear voice precisely what is represented, describing the sacred story from beginning to end. The audience is thus afforded as perfect a representation of the Passion Play as though they were witnessing it in the Bavarian village of Oberammergau. The admission price is only 25 cents, and every one should attend.

Stock And Crop.

Grass seed stripping is now on in full force, and thousands of bushels will be brought in by the end of the week. The crop this year is said to be unusually good.

"Cabeldale," an estate of 230 acres adjoining "Castleton" on the Mt. Horeb pike in Fayette county, has been sold by Gen. Joseph C. Breckinridge to James R. Keene for $30,000.

R. C. Gatewood and J. S. Bogie, of Mt. Sterling, sold to Spears Bros., of this city, 20,000 bushels of blue grass seed, last and this seasons crop at 50 cents, July and August delivery.

The Eighteenth Suburban Handicap was run Saturday afternoon at Shoophead Bay in a drizzling rain. Louis Bell a four-year-old colt Alcedo, by Esler, was the winner. Ethelbert was the favorite at 6 to 5, but at no time was he prominent.

This purchase, together with the fact that Mr. Keene has option on "Castleton" which he now has leased, is taken as an indication that the celebrated Eastern turfman and broker has changed his mind about transferring his thoroughbreds to the East, and will maintain a large establishment in this section indefinitely.

It's a shame to make baby walk or carry him around in your arms when Hinton is selling baby carriages so cheap.

Smallpox at Harrodsburg.

Harrodsburg is greatly excited over 19 well-developed cases of smallpox within the limits of the town. There are 40 cases in Mercer county. No steps have been taken to prevent the spread of the disease. The houses have not even been "flagged," and no pest house has been arranged for. The State Board of Health will be urged to act at once.

The Franklin Butter Extractor.

Mr. D. D. Connors, landlord of the Hotel Fordham, who has the agency for this wonderful churn in Bourbon and Bath Counties, reports a tremendous sale. In the hundreds that have been sold in this county, not one word of complaint has been heard, but everyone is loud in their praises. We publish below a few of the hundreds of testimonials which have been received:

PARIS, KY.

To Whom it May Concern:

This is to certify that we are agents for the Franklin Butter Extractor in the counties of Bourbon and Bath, and we have sold and delivered in Bourbon county 48 churns and have sold about the same number of orders to be filled when the churns arrive. We have only been in the business about two weeks and have never been away from the hotel and have no trouble in selling them. Everybody is well pleased with them. We sent a man to Bath county and he sold seven churns in two days.

D. D. CONNORS AND SISTER, FRANKFORD, KY.

To Whom it May Concern:

This is to certify that after expressing a doubt about the ability of the Franklin Butter Extractor to produce butter in ten minutes from perfectly sweet cream, Mr. Lester, of the Chicago Hardware Co., turned the churn over to me and I made butter myself in two minutes and twenty-five seconds from one-half sweet cream and one-half sweet milk. I consider the churn a wonder and a necessity to all butter makers.

E. B. WETZEL, Capital Hotel, CARLEISLE, KY.

Dear Sirs:—We exhibited our churns here to-day—making two churnings—one in 55 seconds and one in one minute and thirty seconds. Have taken thirty orders.

Respectfully, MRS. E. W. WILSON, HARRODSBURG, KY.

Bedford & Fisher, Paris, Ky.

Gentlemen:—I take pleasure in endorsing the Franklin Butter Extractor. As I am county agent for Mercer county and have taken twenty orders from one o'clock up till four, I can recommend it as a good churn and a great seller.

E. M. GAUNCE, FRANKFORT, KY.

Bedford & Fisher, Paris, Ky.

Gentlemen:—Your churn is all you claim for it—making butter in 2½ minutes with sweet cream.

Yours truly, G. F. BERRY, SHILLBYVILLE, KY.

To Whom it May Concern:

This is to certify that Messrs. Bedford & Fisher brought their churn to my house to-day and made butter from morning milk in three minutes and fifteen seconds and from sour milk in four minutes and fifteen seconds and made very fine butter. I consider the churn a wonder and a necessity to butter makers.

You Do, or You Don't Need Gasses

The eye being a rather delicate organ, great care should be exercised in the selection of proper glasses. Many believe that glasses should be restored to only when the sight becomes so defective as not to be able to do without. This is a great mistake which must be combatted. Whenever there is unmistakable evidence of the need of their aid, they should be used. A neglect of this rule sometimes produces mischief which results in serious trouble if the course be persisted in. Our Dr. C. H. BOWEN having just returned from taking a special course in Optics from one of the best specialists in New York, is prepared to do the best of work, having the latest improved methods of fitting.

Examinations free. Next visit Thursday, June 27, 1901.
